JULY/AUGUST 2016

Summer 2016 has arrived at Providence Forge Presbyterian Church and the heat is on! We have recently experienced firsthand the faith, talent, and service of our church family through youth Sunday, service camp, and the first ever POJ Presbytery Meeting hosted by your church. Now it's time for some fun in the sun. Look what's coming up!

July 10-14 - Our annual PFPC bible school extravaganza. This year's theme is "Egypt - Joseph's Journey from Prison to Palace". The week will start off on Sunday with a picnic at 5 pm and continue through Thursday from 6 to 8:30 pm. Come and join in all the fun and adventure!

August 14 - The annual PFPC picnic at the Davis Farm. Come and enjoy all the great food, fellowship, and a dip in the River!

Special Note - Continuing through September 4th, PFPC will be holding one Sunday Service each week at 10 am. Sunday School will be suspended during this time.

PFPC SPOTLIGHT!

During VBS this year and following with the theme, Joseph himself in the person of our own Doug Cherrington will be the center of attention. Doug has traveled to Egypt several times and will bring a great perspective to the role. He also plans to really “get into character” so you don’t want to miss it.

Thanks to Johanna, Doug, and all the others that are planning, working, and attending this year’s VBS!
