

PFPC E-PISTLES

MAY/JUNE 2016

As we transition from Spring to Summer, Providence Forge Presbyterian Church has some great things to look forward to. While the rainy weather of late as noted by a rare sunrise service in the Gammon garage (above), our church family spirits will soon be lifted. We have already hit the ground running with a great Youth Sunday Service on May 8th. See more below:

May 13 - Movie night at PFPC with the latest offering from the Star Wars franchise (6 to 9 pm).

May 15 - The annual church service at historic Olivet Church followed by a picnic.

June 12 - Choir Appreciation Sunday and luncheon.

June 14 - The first ever Presbytery of the James meeting to be hosted by PFPC. The meeting will be held at Rockahock.

June 19 - Annual week of service to the local community by the PFPC youth and adults.

June 26 - Baptism of Brantley Maxel Geiger.

Special Note - Beginning June 5 through September 4, PFPC will be having one Sunday Service each week at 10 am. Sunday School will be suspended during this time.

PFPC SPOTLIGHT!

On Sunday, April 10th, Parker Wallace and Jenna Grey were recognized and awarded scholarships from the Leanna Mae Knopik Memorial Fund. These awards were presented by Carolyn Moore.

Looking forward, Parker plans to attend Virginia Tech to pursue an engineering degree, and Jenna plans to attend J. Sargent Reynolds to pursue a nursing degree.

Congratulations and Good Luck Parker and Jenna!
