CALL TO WORSHIP

One: The story of faith is a story of courage.

All: It took courage for John the Baptist to prepare the way.

One: It took courage for Mary to say, "Here I am. Use me."

All: It took courage for the disciples to drop their nets and follow Jesus.

One: It took courage for the paralyzed man's friends to lower him through the roof.

All: It took courage for Peter to walk on water.

One: It took courage for Zacchaeus to give half of his possessions to the poor.

All: It took courage for Jesus to enter Jerusalem on a donkey.

One: Faith has never been easy. It is a journey of courage.

All: Again and again, God, show us the way.

One: Let us worship our God of courage and strength.

SONG OF PRAISE #88 All Glory Laud and Honor

[Chorus: All glory, laud, and honor to Thee, Redeemer, King, to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.]

1 Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, who in the Lord's name comest, the King and blessed One.

2 The people of the Hebrews with palms before Thee went; our praise and prayer and anthems before Thee we present.

3 To Thee before Thy passion, they sang their hymns of praise; to Thee, now high exalted, our melody we raise.

4 Thou didst accept their praises, accept the prayers we bring, who in all good delightest, Thou good and gracious King!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION Roger Gench, Presbyterian Outlook

Holy God, we come waving palms and shouting "Hosanna" for the Messiah we expect, but the Messiah we get may not be the Messiah we expect. The Messiah we get calls us to acknowledge and name the violence in our world and in our lives, but so often we accept this violence as the normal way of the world. We have learned to live with the homelessness, poverty, racism, sexism and other injustices of our world. And when we fail to see and name the evils of our world, we allow them to flourish. Forgive us, O God, and open our eyes to see and participate in the places where your resurrected love is bringing liberation and life. Amen.

WORDS OF FORGIVENESS

Friends, the good news of the gospel assures us that God in Christ meets us in the broken places in order to redeem, liberate and heal us. In Christ, we are forgiven and our eyes are opened. In Christ we are empowered to partake in God's liberating and justice-seeking work in our world. Thanks be to God. Amen.

FOR CHILDREN John 12:13 (International Children's Version)

They took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Jesus.

SCRIPTURE

John 12:12-16 (NIV)

12 The next day the great crowd that had come for the festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. 13 They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the king of Israel!" 14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, as it is written: 15 "Do not be afraid, Daughter Zion; see, your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt." 16 At first his disciples did not understand all this. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realize that these things had been written about him and that these things had been done to him.

ANTHEM

SERMON

Rev. Nancy Coleman

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

I refuse to believe that I am powerless.

I refuse to believe that injustice and hatred are simply the way it has to be.

I refuse to believe that I am better or more deserving than my neighbor.

I refuse to believe that my self-worth is rooted in my accomplishments or appearance.

I refuse to believe that the Church is dying, because I see God all around me.

I refuse to believe that the traditions of old are the only path for moving forward.

I refuse to believe that I cannot make a difference.

So with hope in my heart, I will strive to live a life of courage, conviction, and compassion, just as Jesus taught us. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Roger Gench, Presbyterian Outlook

Let us pray for the church, our neighbors in need and the whole world, saying: Hear our prayer.

Help us, O God, to be ever attentive to your presence in our midst during Holy Week. Help us to see that the crucifixion we remember on Good Friday is present in small and large ways throughout our communities and world. And enable us to stand with the crucified among us, we pray to you, O God: Hear our prayer.

O God, we see so much bloodshed in our world. Senseless violence, racialized violence, violence against women, violence against blacks, Asians and immigrants. Help us to be nonviolent resisters of hate and malice and prejudice. And enable us to be agents of your love in all that we do, we pray to you, O God: Hear our prayer.

O God, we pray for the elected leadership in our local governments, state legislatures, Congress and our president. We pray that they would have the courage to work for the common good for all the people of this country, and that they would put aside differences in order to serve the greater good, we pray to you, O God: Hear our prayer.

O God, we continue to pray for those struggling during this pandemic. Help us support those delivering needed aid and vaccines, and let us be witnesses to the benefits of receiving the vaccine ourselves. And help us all take responsibility for every measure that protects us, we pray to you, O God: Hear our prayer.

We pray all these things in the name of Jesus Christ, who taught us to pray saying...

THE LORD'S PRAYER

SONG OF RESPONSE #89 Hosanna Loud Hosanna

1 Hosanna, loud hosanna the little children sang;
through pillared court and temple the joyful anthem rang.
To Jesus, who had blessed them, close folded to His breast,
the children sang their praises, the simplest and the best.
2 From Olivet they followed mid an exultant crowd,
the victor palm branch waving, and chanting clear and loud.
The Lord of earth and heaven rode on in lowly state, nor scorned that little children should on His bidding wait.
3 "Hosanna in the highest!" That ancient song we sing, for Christ is our Redeemer, the Lord of heaven, our King.
O may we ever praise Him with heart and life and voice, and in His blissful presence eternally rejoice.

BENEDICTION

As you leave this space, may your mouth speak of God's goodness.
May your arms hold those in need. May your feet walk toward justice.
May your heart trust its worth. May your soul dance in God's grace.
And may this be your rhythm—again and again and again, until God's promised day. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Go with courage, go with heart, go in peace. Amen.

People: Peace be with you!
