

Policy on the Use of Providence Forge Presbyterian Church for Funerals

On the occasion that the family of a deceased person requests a funeral to be performed on PFPC property, they will meet with the Pastor to discuss this. If the Pastor agrees with the request for the funeral, the approval of Session for the use of church property to perform this service will be obtained.